

Module 2: Introduction to Climate change policy and context

Group Activity: In your group think about your local issues of vulnerability to the impacts of climate change i.e. what is likely to change (or is already changing) in your area that you will need to be concerned with - you can be as specific about places as you wish.

The slide gives you some clues

Please discuss them and make a list

You have 15 minutes